About the FDP

Intellectual Property Rights (IPR), particularly patents, play a significant role in promoting innovation and research. The two-day FDP is designed to provide comprehensive insights into the Indian patent system, patent drafting, IP protection and commercialisation.

Objectives of the FDP

- To create awareness about Indian Patent Law
- To understand the importance of IPR in research
- To familiarise with patent drafting and claims
- To explore the role of IPR in start-ups
- To encourage innovation and technology transfer
